She was my grandmother, Granny Dan, the only grandmother in town with her own roller skates. She wore them proudly with one of her plain little black dresses, and when she went downtown, particularly to the bank, she always wore a hat and gloves, her favorite earrings, and looked as though she were going to do something important.

I read this for book group. Figured that I should read at least ONE Danielle Steele, seeing as she is so popular. Well, it does prove that you can re-word the same sentences 20-30 times and there are people who will keep reading. "She worked hard. She worked VERY hard. How hard she worked!" "She had never really gotten to know Granny Dan. No ...
